General:

I have the honor to state that the Casualty Lists required by your circular No 25, series of 1863, are transmitted with regularity and promptness from the offices of the Medical Directors of the armies of the James, of the Ohio, of the Tennessee, of the Cumberland, and of Western Virginia.

From the army of the Potomac, the forces operating west of the Mississippi, and the Department of the Gulf, these reports have not been made.

I remain, General,

Very Respectfully

Your Obedient Servant
